

Use colour technique and placement to achieve a striking hair colour which enhances the precision of the haircut and maintains the quality and condition of the style.

Ensure there is a significant difference before and after the transformation.

